What seminar participants are saying about PIRA University:

“These were two days of the most powerful and informative lectures I have experienced. They provided in-depth coverage of the topics I needed to transition to an oil/gas trading and refining company.”

Stewart Goodwyn, Enterprise Risk Manager

“This course offered detailed, in-depth knowledge on global oil fundamentals and pricing; very useful for building in-house models to quantify oil fundamentals.”

Chandra Dev Singh, Risk Analyst, Bharat Petroleum

“Of all the seminars I have attended, this one has been the most complete, well structured and helpful.”

Alma Osorio, Products Trader, Ecopetrol S.A.

“PIRA’s seminar illustrated new ways to analyze markets. It also provided the opportunity to meet people at other companies with the same worries and concerns about what is happening in the market.”

Ademar Braz Barnabe, Planning & Control, Nansei Sekiyu K.K.

“The seminar provided the latest economic information necessary for short- and long-term price evaluation and project planning. I like the textbook, which provides all the slides and information from the seminar.”

Napaporn Lacharochana, Supply & Planning, Star Petroleum Refining Company

“Great course — well structured, information saturated and thought provoking. Recommended for those that wish to broaden their understanding of oil market drivers and specifics.”
